Any other person may be admitted only on the invitation of the chair of the meeting or with the majority consent of the members present at the meeting.

A member entitled to vote at a meeting of members may by means of a proxy authorize another individual, or one or more alternate individuals who must be members of the Corporation, to attend and act on the member's behalf to the extent and with the authority conferred by the proxy. A proxy holder has the same rights as the member to speak and to vote.

A proxy must be signed by the member or the member's attorney and be in the required form and is valid only for the meeting for which it is given.

The Board may fix a time not exceeding 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, by which time the proxy must be filed with the office of the Corporation and any period of time so fixed must be specified in the notice of meeting.

A member may revoke a proxy by filing at the office of the Corporation a revocation signed by the member or the member's attorney at any time prior to the day of the meeting; or by presenting the revocation to the chair on the day of the meeting.

3.11 Adjournments

The chair may, with the majority consent of any members' meeting, adjourn the same from time to time and no notice of such adjournment need be given to the members, unless the meeting is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of 30 days or more. Any such committee may formulate its own rules of procedure, subject to such regulations or directions as the Board may from time to time make. Any committee member may be removed by resolution of the Board.

5.09 Participation by Electronic Means

A director may participate in a meeting of the Board by telephonic, electronic or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other, and a director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

SECTION 6– OFFICERS

6.01 Officers

The Board shall appoint from amongst the directors a chair and may appoint any other person to be vice-chair, secretary and treasurer at its first meeting following the annual meeting of members of the Corporation. A Corporation shall not indemnify an individual unless:

- a. the individual acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interest of the Corporation; and
- b. if the matter is a criminal or administrative proceeding that is enforced by monetary penalty, the individual had reasonable grounds for believing their conduct was lawful.

7.02 Insurance

The Board shall cause to be purchased and maintained as it considers advisable and necessary insurance coverage to ensure that directors and officers will be indemnified and saved harmless in accordance with this by-law. The premiums for such insurance coverage shall be paid from the funds of the Corporation.

SECTION 8 - NOTICES

- b. if mailed to such person at such person's recorded address by prepaid ordinary or air mail; or
- c. if sent to such person by telephonic, electronic or other communication facility at such person's recorded address for that purpose.

A notice so delivered shall be deemed to have been given when it is delivered personally or to the recorded address as aforesaid; a notice so mailed shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in a post office or public letter box; and a notice so sent by any means of transmitted or recorded communication shall be deemed to have been given when dispatched or delivered to the appropriate communication company or agency or its representative for dispatch.

The secretary may change or cause to be changed the recorded address of any member, director, officer, or auditor or person who has been appointed to conduct a review engagement in accordance with any information believed by the secretary to be reliable. The declaration by the secretary that notice has been given pursuant to this by-law shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the giving of such notice. The signature of any director or officer of the Corporation to any notice or other document to be given by the Corporation may be written, stamped, type-written or printed or partly written, stamped, type-written or printed.

8.02 Omissions and Errors

The accidental omission to give any notice to any member, director, officer, auditor or person who has been appointed to conduct a review engagement, or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person where the Corporation has provided notice in accordance with the by-laws or any error in any notice not affecting its substance shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting to which the notice pertained or otherwise founded on such notice.

SECTION 9 – CONFLICT OF INTEREST

9.01 Conflict of Interest

A director or officer who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a contract or transaction, or proposed contract or transaction, with the Corporation shall make the disclosure required by the Act. In the event that a dispute or controversy among members, directors, officers, committee members or volunteers of the Corporation arising out of or related to the articles or by-laws, or out of any aspect of the operations of the Corporation is not resolved in private meetings between the parties, then without prejudice to or in any other way derogating from the rights of the members, directors, officers, committee members, employees or volunteers of the Corporation as set out in the articles, by-laws or the Act, and as an alternative to such person instituting a law suit or legal action, such dispute or controversy shall be settled by a process of dispute resolution as follows:

- a. the dispute or controversy shall be settled by arbitration before a single arbitrator, in accordance with the Arbitration Act, 1991 (Ontario) or as otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the dispute. All proceeding relating to arbitration shall be kept confidential, and there shall be no disclosure of any kind. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding and shall not be subject to appeal on a question of fact, law or mixed fact and law; and
- b. all costs of the arbitrator shall be borne by such parties as may be determined by the arbitrator.

SECTION 11 - EFFECTIVE DATE

11.01 Effective Date
